Squads of rescuers arrive in Japan from around the globe

TOKYO, March 14, Kyodo

Relief teams from Australia, New Zealand, Russia, Mexico and Taiwan newly arrived in Tokyo on Monday, and they are bound for the earthquake-devastated area in northeastern Japan, where squads from South Korea, China and the United States are engaged in search and rescue operations.

The number of countries and regions offering Japan quake-related assistance came to 94, after Cuba, Finland, Lithuania and others offered help Monday, the Foreign Ministry said. Nine international organizations have also expressed readiness to help.

South Korea added 102 personnel to its team Monday, a day after the five-member South Korean team arrived in Japan with two rescue dogs. The first batch of the team is searching for survivors in Wakabayashi Ward in the city of Sendai, Miyagi Prefecture.

The 15-member Chinese team is in the city of Ofunato in Iwate Prefecture to look for survivors. They are expected to stay in Japan for around two weeks for rescue operation in Ofunato and Rikuzentakata cities in the prefecture.

A total of 260 rescuers from the United States and Britain are set to join the Chinese team. A 46-year-old Chinese team member said, "The fight against natural disasters is universal. I want to help."

Australia's 75-member search-and-rescue team arrived at the U.S. Air Force's Yokota Air Base in western Tokyo for onward deployment to Miyagi. Forty-five search-and-rescue experts from New Zealand arrived from earthquake-hit Christchurch and joined a small advance team that arrived in Tokyo the day before.

The Russian team of 50 members and a Mexican team of 12 rescuers and six search dogs also flew into Narita airport Monday. Both teams will head to Miyagi for rescue work, according to the foreign ministry. Another 25 members are set to join the Russian squad.

Taiwan's 28-member team also arrived in Japan, bringing with them blankets and food supplies.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina on Monday said Bangladesh is ready to send a rescue team to Japan, while South Africa is also set to dispatch a relief team.

The U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs said that it has dispatched 13 urban search and rescue teams of international experts to Japan. An additional 83 such teams are on standby to assist upon Japan's request, it said.

Meanwhile, Thailand's Cabinet on Monday approved the release of 200 million baht (some $6.5 million) in support for relief operations in Japan. The Commerce Ministry of China also said Beijing will provide 30 million yuan, or about 370 million yen, in emergency humanitarian assistance to Japan.

The government of Vietnam reportedly decided Monday to make a donation of $200,000 to Japan. The city of Seoul is also ready to offer materials and supplies as well as a team of medical personnel.

遠い日本のみなさまへ

東北関東大地震の報道は疑いもなく全世界の人々を驚愕、震撼させ、深い悲しみに落し入れました。メキシコ在住の私たちには残念ながら直接、何をすることもできません。犠牲となられた、かけがえのない生命のご冥福をひたすら祈り、数十万人におよぶ被災者の方々へ心からの同情と連帯の気持ちを何とかしてお伝えしたかったのです。そこで音楽家の私たちは義捐金集めも兼ねたマラソンコンサートを開いて、日本とメキシコの心と心を結ぶ絆を強められたらと考え、恩恵のえき行動に移しました。幸いにも国立芸術センターの協力を得られ会場の確保が決定したその日（3月19日）から、電話とメールで友人の音楽家たちに呼びかけをはじめたのです。素晴らしい反応と共に次々と届けられました。演奏旅行先から何時間もハイウェーを飛ばして帰って来る人、演奏後そのまま空港へ直行しなければならない人、すでに決まっていたスケジュールの調整に誰もが心をこめての参加の承諾でした。

それぞれがあの時このコンサートが日本のために今すぐ、自分に出来る最善の方法と理解して、私たちのイニシアチブに賛同した理由でした。この録画はその皆の気持ちのドキュメントなのです。

音楽の持つ不思議な力を借り、このコンサートが演奏家と聴衆の一人ひとりを非日常的な空間に運んで、自分に何が出来るか、に想いをめぐらせ、今後の生き方に役立てる道につながったのであれば幸いです。

これは9時間のマラソンの1/10にも及ばない記録ですが、どうぞメキシコのアーティストと聴衆による、この感動的なコンサートの雰囲気から私たちの連帯と激励の気持ちをお汲み取り下さい。

A todos amigos de Japón, desde el lejano país de México

Sin duda, las noticias del Gran Terremoto del Este de Japón nos sorprendieron, horrorizaron y nos pusieron a todos los seres humanos del mundo en un estado de tristeza. Aunque nosotros, que vivimos en México, lamentablemente no podíamos hacer nada directamente más que rezar por el descanso del alma de las víctimas, quisimos enviar muestras de compasión y nuestras condolencias hacia los miles de damnificados. Por ello, pensamos qué podíamos hacer como músicos y decidimos emprender una acción para reforzar el vínculo de las almas entre Japón y México, realizando un concierto maratónico que también sirvió para reunir contribuciones para la causa. Afortunadamente, logramos la colaboración del Centro Nacional para las Artes y el 19 de marzo fuimos notificados que podríamos utilizar una sala para ese evento, por lo que desde ese día empezamos a hacer llamadas a nuestros amigos músicos por teléfono y enviamos e-mails sobre ese evento. Nos llegaron muchas reacciones y muestras de simpatía magníficas, una tras otra: por ejemplo, un compañero vino desde lejos manejando en autopista por muchas horas, aunque estaba de gira en concierto; otro colega tuvo que regresar al aeropuerto minutos después de su interpretación, etc.

Todos aceptaron participar de todo corazón y modificaron sus planes. El motivo de que nuestra iniciativa haya conseguido este nivel de apoyo es que todos reconocieron que ese concierto era el mejor medio de ayudar a Japón en ese momento. Así, esta grabación documenta nuestro sentimiento.

Seré feliz si ese concierto hubiese logrado llevar a cada uno de los artistas participantes y oyentes a un espacio extraordinario, gracias al poder misterioso de la música, y si les haya encaminado a vivir mejor su propia vida, pensando qué puede hacer por sí mismos.

Este disco contiene solamente cerca de una décima parte del total de nueve horas que duró el concierto maratón. A pesar de ello, por favor, reciban esta muestra de solidaridad como un incentivo, sintiendo la atmósfera de este concierto conmovedor en el que participaron los artistas y el auditorio de México.
